

Basco Registration and Password Reset Instructions

These instructions explain how to register for the Basco system to allow you to birth notify and register your animals and make use of other facilities only available to registered users. You must be a member of a relevant breed society such as Texel Sheep, Suffolk Sheep or Limousin Cattle and have a Direct Debit account.

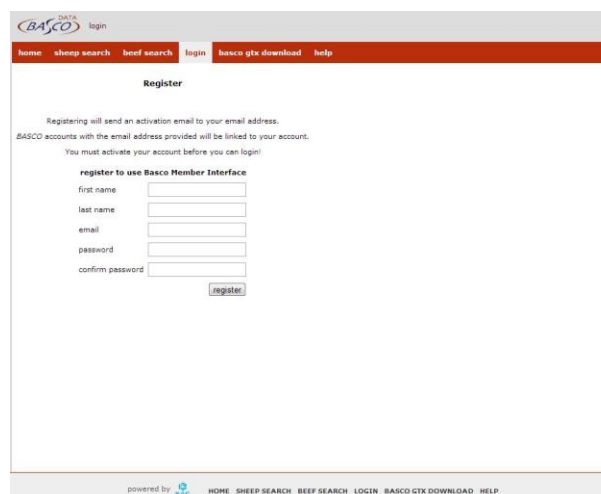

To register with the system navigate to: <http://www.basco.org/>

At the top of the page you will see an option to login to Basco. Click on this to get the following page:

To register, click the link that says “You can register for free here!” This will take you to the registration form:

Fill in the form details with your First Name, Last Name, Email Address and Password.

Please note that the email address you enter must match the email address that you have notified to your breed societies. If you are a member of more than one breed society that uses Basco then ensure that each society has been notified of the same address so that all of your flocks and herds are available from one log in screen.

Click “register”. The following screen will appear.

The screenshot shows the BASCO login page. At the top left is the BASCO logo with 'DATA' above it and 'login' to its right. Below the logo is a red navigation bar with buttons for 'home', 'sheep', 'beef', 'login', and 'help'. The main content area contains the following text: 'An email has been dispatched to the email address that you entered. Please copy and paste the url that you recieved into the url bar above. This will activate your account and allow you to login.' Below this is a bold instruction: 'please enter the activation code that was sent to you'. There is a text input field labeled 'activation code' and an 'activate' button. At the bottom right, there is a 'Messages:' section with a message: 'Message: Registration Email Sent!'.

The system will send an activation email to your email address similar to the one below:
